

May 29, 2007
Daily Report

Ethics bill up for vote this week

A strengthened H.B. 730, which calls for legislators and statewide elected officials to complete an annual financial disclosure, will likely go before the entire House this week for a vote. The bill originally called for disclosure from legislators only, but was amended by the House and Governmental Affairs committee last week. The amendment is being supported several statewide officials.